

Link Group announces Dee McGrath as new Link Fund Administration CEO

5 April 2019: Link Group (ASX: LNK) has announced the appointment of Dee McGrath as the new chief executive officer of Link Fund Administration, as part of a suite of management initiatives that underline Link Group's commitment to its clients and technology-led strategy, while further enhancing its senior leadership capability.

As CEO of Link Fund Administration, Ms McGrath will oversee Link Group's administration of many of Australia's superannuation funds.

Managing Director of Link Group John McMurtrie said: "I am delighted to announce that Dee McGrath is joining Link Group. Ms McGrath is a high calibre executive and her extensive experience in both relationship management and delivering strategic projects will be invaluable to our clients and their members and employers."

Ms McGrath joins Link Group from IBM, where she most recently held the role of Managing Partner, Global Business Services. At IBM, Dee was responsible for the strategy, client relationships and business performance of IBM's consulting and professional services business in Australia and New Zealand. Prior to IBM, Ms McGrath held senior roles at Visa, Hewlett Packard and NAB.

"Link Group is dedicated to excellence in customer service and Ms McGrath will reinvigorate our approach to client engagement, as well as work with the broader Link Group team to help all our clients utilise technology to their best advantage," Mr McMurtrie said.

Ms McGrath will commence her role at Link Group on 3 June 2019.

This appointment, together with other recently announced changes including the establishment of a new Operations, Technology & Innovation division, to be led by long-standing Link Group executive Paul Gardiner, reinforces Link Group's commitment to deliver on its client and innovation-led strategic plan.

Other recently announced changes include the appointment of Nigel McCammon as Chief Operations Officer, Asia Pacific, Operations, Technology & Innovation. Mr McCammon will also join Link Group in June and was most recently Head of Mercer Administration Services.

These changes signal Link Group's continued commitment to enhance its capability to meet the changing needs of the industry and its clients.
